

ADMINISTRATION:

The Administration area is designed to allow you to manage your Accounts, Users, Sites and Microsites. This is not the area used to manage the content of your site. If you need to manage your site's content, then choose [\[Content Management\]](#) from the main menu.

You can receive help that is specific to the area of interest such as Accounts, Users, Sites & Microsites by going into that module and clicking on the [Help] button or selecting from the listing below.
